

Virtual 2020 Fall Learning at Congregation B'nai Israel, Albuquerque

Exploring Jewish Prayer and Spirituality

Rabbi Gartenberg and Guest Teachers

Rabbi Dov Gartenberg takes participants for a deep dive into meaning of the Jewish liturgical tradition, using the new and trail blazing Siddur, (prayer book), Lev Shalem. Our aims: First: to discover spiritual insights unique to Jewish prayer. Second: to gain literacy and understanding that makes Jewish communal worship meaningful, accessible, and fulfilling. Our focus in the fall will be the Shabbat morning service.

When does it start? Wednesday, November 4, 2020, 6:30 to 7:30pm MST.

How often will it meet? Every Wednesday through December 9th for 5 sessions. No session on Nov. 25th due to Thanksgiving.

What will it cost? $18 for CBI members. ($3.60 per session) $27 for community members ($5.40 per session.) Cost of Siddur Lev Shalem is $36. All tuition funds go toward underwriting other adult Jewish learning offerings at CBI.

Who is this class not for? Anyone who presumes to know everything about Jewish prayer and has spiritually reached Nirvana.

Please register in advance for this class: Please register at this zoom link, after which you will be billed for tuition.
