

CBI Erev Simchat Torah

With Chava Mirel and Rabbi Dov Gartenberg

Saturday eve. Oct. 10th 7:30-9:00pm

Because of the Pandemic we are not able to gather and to dance with the Torah as we begin the 5781 Torah reading cycle anew. Chava and I have designed an alternative Simchat Torah experience that captures the joy of Simchat Torah in a way we think you will love. Here is what is going to happen on Saturday night.

While we cannot sing together at synagogue, we hope we can inspire you to sing with Chava at home. Since we cannot dance together at synagogue, we hope the music and joy will cause you to dance at home. Since we cannot carry a Torah Scroll, we ask you to dance with the Baby Torah Scroll that you received when you started Hebrew School Kindergarten (Kitah Gan). See pictured below.

7 Virtual Hakafot-Circuits. Every Hakafah will be accompanied by song

- First Hakafah: A Medley of Songs in Honor of Simchat Torah by Chava Mirel
- Second Hakafah: Screening A BimBam Video of a Portion from Genesis.
- Third Hakafah: Screening a BimBam Video of a Portion from Exodus
- Fourth Hakafah: Screening a BimBam Video of a Portion from Leviticus
- Fifth Hakafah: Screening a BimBam Video from the from Numbers
- Sixth Hakafah: Screening a BimBam Video from a Portion in Deuteronomy.
- Seventh Hakafah: A Closing Medley of Songs in Honor of Simchat Torah by Chava Mirel

Our Simchat Torah Celebration is open to the entire community. Registration in advance to join our Zoom Video is required. Register at this link and you will receive the login details.
