

Virtual 2020 Fall Learning at Congregation B'nai Israel

Exploring Torah and the Illumination of Slow Reading

Rabbi Dov Gartenberg and Guest Teachers

Rabbi Gartenberg takes participants on a journey through commentary and conversation of selected passages from the 5 Books of Moses, the foundation of Jewish learning and practice. Pictured on the left is the Etz Hayim Humash, one of the Torah text and commentaries we explore along with several others. He teaches how to mine for the incredible insights derived from a close reading of the sacred text and how to access the generations of commentary that ooze from the text and flood us with wisdom.

When does it start? Wednesday, October 7, 2020, 7:45 to 8:45pm MST following Exploring Jewish Prayer and Spirituality

How often will it meet? Every Wednesday through December 9th for 10 sessions.

What will it cost? $36 for CBI members. ($3.60 per session) $54 for community members ($5.40 per session.) All tuition funds go toward underwriting other adult Jewish learning offerings at CBI.

Who is this class not for? Anyone who is not curious, watches too much TV, does not enjoy reading or study, or only reads scripture from a literal perspective.

Please register in advance for this class: Please register at this zoom link, after which you will be billed for tuition.

Or you may register by phone by calling our office, 505 266-0155.
<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZYpf-2oqz8rHdHCSRwPZ6a2-URUJqdxB-p4>.

Registrants will receive a zoom link upon registering for the class.